The month of May is one my favorite times of the year. And no, it is not because the end of the school year is near! May is Mary’s month. It is the month that we set aside to honor the Mother of God in a special way. This weekend as a parish we crown Mary, Queen of Heaven and Peace. The flowers that are placed at the foot of the statue of Mary and placed as a crowned upon the statue’s head, are a reminder that our spiritual mother is always interceding for us in heaven to her son, Jesus.

May is also a special time to honor our mothers here on earth. We celebrate the love and dedication of our own mothers. In my view, Mothers’ Day should be every day! Mothers give so tirelessly to their children and families. Moms, please know that we are grateful! For me, like so many other sons and daughters, Mother’s Day will once again have a special meaning this year. I no longer have the opportunity to thank and express my love to my mom in person. My mother left this earth on a cold November afternoon six and a half years ago. I do rejoice in knowing that I now have two spiritual moms, standing side by side, guiding me. My mother had a deep devotion to our Blessed Lady and watching our second and eighth graders from our school crown Mary this past Thursday gave me goose bumps. The innocence and beauty of the moment transforms me into a child again. The unconditional faith that our Sacred Heart Catholic children expressed so beautifully gives me great hope for our future. There is no price tag that can be put on faith formation, and I thank our parents, teachers, and parishioners for their partnership in this heroic vocation!

In today’s Gospel in his post-resurrection appearance to his disciples, Jesus asks Peter three times, “do you love me?” In the past, when I heard this gospel proclaimed at Mass I always focused on the number of times the question was being asked by Jesus. Was Jesus reminding Peter of his earlier denial of him during his passion? Possibly, or maybe Jesus’ command to Peter is a reminder to us all that we are called to feed Jesus’ lambs (children). So, our partnership in the faith formation of our youth is a heroic vocation!

Christ’s Peace,
Frank Barlag
